6. Third Parties

The Clients' personal information may be, in limited amounts, distributed and further used by trusted third parties, in particular, banks, through which trading operations and the related transactions will take place. When the Client uses the Company's Website, he/she may be able to link to other websites. This Policy does not apply to those other sites which the Company links to and the Company is not responsible for any personal information collected by third parties via those other sites.

7. Security

The Company makes efforts to maintain the appropriate safeguards in order to ensure that the security, integrity and privacy of the data and personal information provided by the Client is not misused. Such measures and safeguards include encryption during data transmission, strong authentication mechanisms and the separation of machines and data to provide secure areas. While such systems and procedures reduce the risk of security breaches, they do not provide absolute security. Therefore, the Company cannot guarantee that its service will be immune from any wrongdoings, malfunctions, unlawful interceptions or unauthorized access to the information stored therein and to other information security risks, or that Client's private communications on or through Company's service will remain private.

8. Updating Client's Information

The Client shall inform the Company regarding any changes of his/her personal data. Additionally, the Client shall inform the Company if he/she wishes to delete personal information that the Company holds about him/her. All requests regarding personal data shall be sent by the Client via email at support@rtsmarkets.com. We will change or delete Client's personal information in accordance with his/her instructions, except to the extent where the Company is required to hold Client's personal information for regulatory or legal purposes, to provide him/her with the services that he/she has requested or to maintain adequate business records. In any case, the Company may keep any aggregated or anonymized information for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, indefinitely.

9. Client's Rights; Choice and Opt-out

By visiting the Company's Website, the Client is not obligated to provide the Company with any of the personal data. However, without providing the information requested during the Online Registration Process, the Company may not be able to open an account for the Client, or to provide the Client with any other services, information or assistance or to evaluate the appropriateness of the service the Client is requesting.

During the Online Registration Process with the Company, as a Client, you will be given the option to opt-out of subscribing to the following additional services:

- Marketing services, which provides you with information regarding the products and services offered by the Company or its partners;
- Newsletters;
- SMS (text) messages (if applicable);
- Other electronic communications.

If the Client wishes not to receive the abovementioned communications but he/she has requested to receive such information during the Online Registration Process, the Client may opt-out of receiving them by following the instructions included in each communication.

10. Amendments to Policy

The Company may change and update the terms of this Privacy Policy from time to time. All amended terms shall be effective five (5) calendar days after their initial posting on the Company's Website, or as of the first time that the Client access and or uses Online Trading Facility after such amendments were made, whichever is sooner, unless the Company amends the Privacy Policy to comply with legal or regulatory requirements. In the latter cases, the amendments will become effective as required, or ordered.
